This complaint must be responded to separately by the South African Pagan Council (SAPC) and South African Pagan Rights Association (SAPRA).

I have no fight with yours or any belief system. In fact, in the past, i've clearly used my online presence to stand up for minorities. In my experience, there's good and bad in all. My stand is against those who damage our town or threaten me. That is what has occurred with my expose of fraud by Retha van Niekerk who is a leader in both the SAPC and SAPRA (like several of you).

These links provide background to my complaint. The first is of a fraud involving Van Niekerk. As you'll read, i was particularly (and deliberately light on the paganism aspect, that emphasised by my original emails to Damon Leff (which can be downloaded from the second article). However, that changed when Leff and other members of your organisations became negatively involved.

Supporting crime is wrong. The image of your organisations is being tarnished, as is the image of South African pagans by the immoral backlash against me.

I will not be intimidated. I've faced worse and will fight back, even if it takes years, against those with evil intent e.g. www.knysnakeep.org/beginners-guide-democratic-alliance-corruption (NCOP to rule on that 6-year mess next month).

It's disappointing that you've failed to step in already and that some of your members have chosen to post negative comments about me. It's possible that SAPRA and the SAPC are a lie by name, merely the alter-ego of Damon Leff and those who he chooses to be his disciples.

However, since legal action against me has been stated by Leff, on behalf of SAPRA, i must give you the opportunity to correct your mistakes before i join you to the proceedings.

My complaint is:

- Retha van Niekerk, a high-ranking member of SAPRA and the SAPC, fraudulently represented herself as a doctor and counsellor. Furthermore, she is involved in a illegal company, Maritime Risk Solutions, which is illegally offering training in automatic weapons and illegally supplying security staff with such. It should be irking, at the least, that Van Niekerk works with children.
- SAPRA and Damon Leff, who is also a leader of SAPC, has used her fake credentials in SAPRA documents and in submissions to government regarding pagan rights. That provided a false sense of credibility. As Leff is a long-time friend of the Van Niekerks, who are part of his coven of witches, it would be unlikely that he was unaware of the deception. That's emphasised by his actions against me once i exposed it.
- Instead of responding positively to my revelation of Van Niekerk's crimes, Leff, as SAPRA, has stated legal action against me - www.facebook.com/southafricanpaganrightsalliance/photos/a.360222547424820.1073741829.357811270999281/1397373180376413/?type=3.
- As SAPC and SAPRA, Leff and other members (notably Christina Engela) have written negative comments about me, also using the repeated propaganda that there is no evidence of my claims.

It's my request that all involved be disciplined and that the ejection of SAPRA from the SAPC be considered.

My questions and your answer doesn't have to be the finality of my complaint. We should communicate, in between, towards understanding and resolution.

Please respond with determination and not in any way that can be determined to be an extension of ill-behaviour.

Be sure to state who is responding, his/her position, which council, and which council members he/she has consulted with. Be transparent. That will also ensure that it's not Leff answering through one of his disciples. All who are involved in responding must have their name included, on a letterhead of the appropriate organisation.

Regards Engela and the unexpected turn this story took, do the SAPC and SAPRA support vampirism, the drinking of human blood?

Please acknowledge my email today and respond in more detail by 9am on August 10 2017 (48hrs).
